

Legal Literacy Policy

Bundelkhand Collge, Jhansi

To promote legal awareness and social responsibility, Bundelkhand College, Jhansi has established a robust framework for imparting legal education and extending legal literacy to students and the wider community.

Objectives of the Legal Literacy Policy

The Legal Literacy Policy has been formulated with the purpose of:

- Equipping students with knowledge of constitutional values, rights, and responsibilities.
- Ensuring equitable access to legal aid for marginalized sections of society.
- Building a strong culture of legal awareness through academic and community outreach programmes.
- Strengthening participatory democracy by promoting respect for the rule of law.

Legacy in Legal Education

Bundelkhand College holds the distinction of being the pioneer institution in the Bundelkhand region to introduce legal education. The Bachelor of Laws (LLB) programme was established in 1961, later expanding to include Master of Laws (LLM) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Law. This legacy positions the college as a leading institution for advanced study and research in legal education.

Alumni Contributions

The college has a strong alumni base comprising advocates, consultants, judicial officers, and academicians who contribute significantly to the legal field. Many alumni serve in reputed law schools and universities, furthering the institution's tradition of excellence and extending its reputation nationwide.

Promotion of Legal Awareness

The college organizes regular seminars, workshops, and outreach programmes in collaboration with legal experts, NGOs, and governmental organizations. These activities focus on:

- Spreading awareness of constitutional rights and duties.
- Educating students and citizens about the importance of legal compliance.
- Creating platforms for dialogue between legal professionals and the community.

Legal Aid and Support Mechanism

In keeping with the principle of justice for all, Bundelkhand College ensures access to free legal aid and awareness programmes for marginalized and underprivileged groups. Regular camps are organized in adopted villages and on college campus too.

The initiatives include:

- Legal Aid Clinics offering pro bono services to women, scheduled castes, minorities, differently-abled, and economically disadvantaged individuals.
- Awareness Campaigns to educate communities about available legal remedies and processes.
- Sensitization Programmes aimed at empowering citizens to exercise their rights without fear or bias.

Implementation Framework

1. Formation of Committees/Nodal Officers
 - Legal Aid Committee to oversee activities and outreach.
 - Designated Nodal Officers for women, SC/ST, minorities, and differently-abled beneficiaries.
2. Receipt of Requests/Complaints
 - Individuals seeking legal aid may register their issues in writing or via designated communication channels.
3. Action at Committee Level
 - The Legal Aid Committee evaluates requests and ensures timely guidance or intervention.
4. Reporting and Documentation
 - All activities, awareness drives, and cases supported are documented and reported periodically for transparency and accountability.

Conclusion

Bundelkhand College, Jhansi, through its Legal Literacy Policy, reaffirms its dedication to advancing legal education, fostering awareness, and ensuring inclusive access to justice. With its academic heritage, distinguished alumni, and proactive outreach programmes, the college continues to serve as a catalyst for legal empowerment and social justice in the Bundelkhand region.
